

Faculty Position Available

Department of Nuclear Engineering and Radiological Sciences
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

The Department of Nuclear Engineering and Radiological Sciences in the College of Engineering of the University of Michigan invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position. We are primarily interested in applicants who will contribute to our current teaching and research programs in nuclear radiation measurements. Interest in nonproliferation technology and policy is desired but outstanding applicants from all relevant technical areas will be considered. The appointment is anticipated to be tenure-track assistant or associate professor.

Please submit application materials (CV, statement of research interests, statement of teaching philosophy, list of 3 or 4 qualified individuals who would be willing to provide a letter of reference, and cover letter) to:

Professor Kim Kearfott, Search Committee Chair
Department of Nuclear Engineering and Radiological Sciences
University of Michigan
2355 Bonisteel Boulevard
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-2104

kearfott@umich.edu

Applications will be reviewed continuously, but those received by January 9, 2015 will be given priority. We expect to fill the position during this 2014-2015 academic year.